

C. Frederick Koenig III

Fred Koenig is a founding shareholder of the Philadelphia IP boutique firm of Volpe and Koenig, P.C. that recently celebrated its 25th Anniversary. Fred has extensive experience in securing and enforcing patents, trademarks and copyrights in a wide range of diverse fields and industries, both domestically and internationally.

Fred currently serves on the Council of the ABA Intellectual Property Law Section and has held a variety of positions within the Section over the past 30 years. Fred founded the China SIPO/US Bar Liaison Council on which he represents the ABA/IPL Section and currently serves as Chair. Fred is also the current Liaison from the IPL Section to the ABA International Law Section and has participated in the generation of Joint Comments of the Sections on six different CN law and rule proposals over the last year.

Fred earned his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School. He received his B.S. in Mathematics, with honors, from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and his M.A. in Mathematics from Pennsylvania State University.

Fred is registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office and is a member of the bar in Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Massachusetts. He is admitted to the United States Supreme Court, U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Third, Fourth and Federal Circuits, and the U.S. District Courts for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania.

