Course Description: This program is part of a series of programs run by the NYIPLA and the Conner Inn of Court analyzing damages issues presented under the current patent law and using the fact pattern of the 1913 decision in Wright Brothers v. Curtis-Herring. The program will feature a mock courtroom presentation of an expert witness, oral argument and a panel presentation of seasoned trial counsel and distinguished judges. The topic of calculation of damages in a patent case should be of great interest to both the attorneys and judges in attendance.
